Honey Badger Exploration Inc.
Notes to condensed consolidated interim financial statements
For the six-month period ended June 30, 2016 and 2015

1. Nature of Operations and Going Concern

Honey Badger Exploration Inc. (the "Company") was founded in 1992 for the purpose of the acquisition, exploration, and development of mining properties. The Company's head office and the primary location of its registered records is 141 Adelaide Street West, Suite 520, Toronto, Ontario, M5H 3L5. The Company owns a wholly owned subsidiary 606596 Alberta Ltd.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the basis of a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company is currently in the exploration stage and has not commenced commercial operations. As at June 30, 2016, the Company had a working capital deficit of $289,093 and an accumulated deficit of $7,683,265. These conditions cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

In assessing whether the going concern assumption is appropriate, management takes into account all available information about the future, which is at least, but not limited to, twelve months from the end of the reporting period. The Company's ability to continue operations and fund its mining interest expenditures is dependent on management's ability to secure additional financing. Management is actively pursuing such additional sources of financing, and while it has been successful in doing so in the past, there can be no assurance it will be able to do so in the future.

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements do not give effect to adjustments that would be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern and therefore need to realize its assets and liquidate its liabilities and commitments in other than the normal course of business and at amounts different from those in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Statement of compliance

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance and comply with International Accounting Standard 34 Interim Financial Reporting (“IAS 34”) using accounting principles consistent with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and interpretations issued by the IFRS Interpretations Committee (“IFRIC”). The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year and the corresponding interim reporting period. Furthermore, the information on accounting standards effective in future periods and not yet adopted remains unchanged from that disclosed in the annual financial statements.

(b) Basis of presentation

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements do not include all of the information required for full annual financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments that have been measured at fair value. In addition, these condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information.

(c) Basis of consolidation

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary 606596 Alberta Ltd., which is not active and has no assets in the current or prior year. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

(d) Significant accounting judgements and estimates

The preparation of these condensed consolidated interim financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements and reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period.

Actual outcomes could differ from these estimates. The condensed consolidated interim financial statements include estimates which, by their nature, are uncertain. The impacts of such estimates are pervasive throughout the condensed consolidated interim financial statements, and may require accounting adjustments based on future occurrences. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised and also in future periods when the revision affects both current and future periods.

Significant Accounting Judgments and Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Significant assumptions about the future and other sources of estimation uncertainty that management has made at the end of the reporting period, that could have an effect on the amounts recognized in the condensed consolidated interim financial statements relate to the following:

Going concern

The preparation of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements requires management to make judgments regarding the going concern of the Company as previously discussed in Note 1 of the Financial Statements.

3. Marketable Securities

Marketable securities consist of available-for-sale securities over which the Company does not have significant influence or control.

During the six-month period ended June 30, 2016, the Company:

- (a) Disposed of marketable securities for gross proceeds of $81,729 (2015: $nil).
- (b) Reported an unrealized loss on the fair value of the securities of $2,661 to Other Comprehensive Income (2015: $10,500)
- (c) Reported a realized loss on the sale of the securities of $8,135 to profit or loss (2015: $nil) from Other Comprehensive Income.

The following table sets out the changes to the marketable securities from December 31, 2015 to June 30, 2016:

	Balance December 31, 2015	Net New Purchases	Net Proceeds of Dispositions	Fair Value Adjustments to OCI	Balance June 30, 2016

4. Mineral Properties

During the six-month period ended June 30, 2016, the Company incurred exploration and evaluation expenditures of $118,545 on the LG Diamond Property (2015: $nil), $10,000 on the Wemindji Property (2015: $nil), $nil on the Sagar Property (2015: $32,530) and $625 on other properties (2015: $nil).

The following table summarizes the cumulative exploration and evaluation expenditures the Company has incurred on its various properties:

	(a) LG Diamond Property $	(b) Wemindji Property $	(c) Other Properties $	All Exploration Properties $
Balance – December 31, 2015	162,349	-	2,411,789	2,574,678

Balance – June 30, 2016	311,627	10,000	2,412,414	2,703,849

The Company has ownership interests in the following exploration projects:

(a) LG Diamond Property, Quebec

On September 29, 2015, the Company entered into an agreement with 9019-5504 Quebec Inc. (the "Vendor") to acquire the LG Diamond Project located in the Jamesie County Municipality, James Bay Region of Quebec. The property consists of 2,275 hectares and as consideration, the Company issued 10,000,000 common shares at a value of $0.01 each and granted a 2% net smelter returns ("NSR") royalty to the Vendor. One half, or 1% of the NSR can be bought back for $1,000,000 and the remaining 1% for $2,000,000. The purchase transaction closed on October 23, 2015.

Property Description

The LG Diamond project is located in the James Bay region of Quebec, on the boundary of major geological provinces near the intersection of two major crustal faults with proven kimberlite fertility. The property package consists of a cluster of 9 non-adjacent claim blocks (KB-1 to KB-9) with a total of 55 claims covering 2,275 hectares. The claims are also in proximity to the trans-taiga gravel road and power lines servicing Hydro Quebec's regional network of massive hydroelectric power dams.

Previous work in the area has identified the existence of indicator minerals prospective to kimberlite exploration in the vicinity of the claim blocks. Each claim block is centered on circular magnetic anomalies, which represents a possible kimberlite dyke.

The company is currently modelling and compiling historic geophysical data. A more detailed magnetic survey is planned in 2016 to better resolve the magnetic targets. Once the magnetic survey is completed a drilling program is expected to be initiated to test the prioritized anomalies, consisting of short 100-150m holes in the center of each anomaly to test the bedrock directly below.

4. Mineral Properties (Continued)

(b) Wemindji Property

On May 26, 2016, the Company entered into an agreement to acquire the Wemindji Property, which consists of 29 claims located approximately 20 kilometers south-east of Wemindji, in the James Bay region of Québec.

The acquisition costs consist of the payment of $5,000 cash and the issuance of 3,000,000 common shares of the Company to Resources D. Villeneuve Inc. ("RDVI") and the payment of $5,000 cash and the issuance of 1,000,000 common shares of the Company to Sparton Resources Inc. ("SRI"). Honey Badger is also required to grant of a 2% net smelter return ("NSR") royalty to the property vendors (1% in favour of RDVI and 1% in favour of SRI). The 2% NSR may be bought back from the vendors for $2,000,000. The vendors are at arm's length to the Company.

As of June 30, 2016, the Company had not issued the 4,000,000 common shares owed to the property vendors.

(c) Other Properties

Other properties include:

- Bear Limonite Creek property

The Bear Limonite Creek property in British Columbia remains in good standing but is not an exploration priority for the Company. The Limonite Creek Project consists of 2 claims covering 1,050 hectares in the westernmost part of the Telkwa Pass approximately 50 km southwest of Smithers, British Columbia with early stage copper and gold exploration targets. The property is currently available for option and the Company will not pursue any further activities on the property.

- Sagar Property, Quebec

On February 28, 2014, the Company entered into a purchase and sale agreement with Energizer Resources Inc. ("Energizer"), a company related by common management. On July 31, 2014 (the "Effective Date") the purchase and sale agreement was replaced by an option agreement (the "Option Agreement") entered into between the Company and Energizer pursuant to which the Company was granted an earn-in option to acquire up to a 100% interest in the Sagar Property in consideration of cash payments, share issuances and work commitment expenditures. This option agreement was further revised on May 8, 2015.

To earn an initial 35% interest in the Sagar Property, the Company was required to pay Energizer $50,000 by December 31, 2015, incur work expenditures in the amount of $500,000 on the Sagar Property by December 31, 2016 and issue 20,000,000 of its common shares to Energizer by December 31, 2015.

As of December 31, 2015, the Company did not satisfy the terms of the option agreement, which has now lapsed, and the Company will not pursue any further activities on the Sagar property.

5. Related Party Transactions and Balances

Related parties as defined by IAS 24 Related Party Disclosures include the members of the Board of Directors, key management personnel and any companies controlled by these individuals. Key management personnel include those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling activities of the Company as a whole. Key management personnel for the Company consists of the CEO, CFO and VP Exploration.

The following transactions occurred with related parties during the six-month period ended June 30, 2016:

- a) Key management personnel received cash compensation of $27,682 (2015 – $nil), which has been recorded as exploration expenditures on the Statement of Loss and Comprehensive Loss.
- b) A corporation controlled by the CFO received cash compensation of $24,375 (2015 – $nil), which has been recorded as payroll and professional fees on the Statement of Loss and Comprehensive Loss.

As of June 30, 2016 the following related party balances were outstanding:

- a) Deferred compensation of $nil (2015: $nil).

6. Deferred Premium on Flow-Through Shares

The Company has completed flow-through (“F/T”) share financings resulting in commitments to the subscribers to incur Canadian exploration expenditures (“CEEs”) prior to the end of specific calendar years. Flow-through shares and exploration expenditures qualifying as CEEs are defined in the Income Tax Act of Canada. The obligation to flow-through subscribers is recognized as a liability and has been calculated using a 20% rate applied against the gross proceeds of the flow-through financing. As qualifying CEE’s are incurred during the relevant commitment period, the liability is subsequently proportionally reduced until the obligation to subscribers has been satisfied.

The following flow-through commitments were made:

- a) The Company renounced $281,660 on December 31, 2014 under the look-back rule and had a shortfall of $206,597 as of December 31, 2015.
- b) The Company renounced $200,000 on December 31, 2015 under the look-back rule and has committed to incurring $200,000 in CEEs by December 31, 2016.
- c) The Company will renounce $241,000 on December 31, 2016 under the look-back rule, which will commit the Company to incurring $241,000 in CEEs by December 31, 2017.

The following table sets out the changes to the deferred premium on flow-through shares with unfulfilled CEE commitments from December 31, 2015 to June 30, 2016:

Flow-Through Financing Series	CEE Commitments for the Calendar Year Ending	Deferred Premium December 31, 2015	Increase (Decrease) in Deferred Premium	Recognition of Deferred Premium	Deferred Premium June 30, 2015

7. Provision for Flow-Through Shares

For the 2011 F/T series with CEE commitments by December 31, 2012 there was uncertainty regarding the eligibility of certain expenditures as qualified CEEs. During the year ended December 31, 2013 the Company recorded a contingent provision of $100,973 calculated using a 35% combined rate applied against the initial estimated CEE shortfall.

Based on the preliminary results of a CRA audit completed in March 2016 of qualified CEEs incurred during the year ended December 31, 2012 the contingent provision was increased during the year ended December 31, 2015 to $335,015.

Based on the final results of the CRA audit and the receipt of a reassessment for from the CRA totaling $233,015 in Part XII.6 taxes and penalties, $233,015 of the contingent provision was reclassified to accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

The following table sets out the changes to the provision on flow-through shares with unfulfilled CEE commitments from December 31, 2015 to June 30, 2016:

Flow-Through Financing Series	CEE Commitments for the Calendar Year Ending	Contingent Provision as of December 31, 2015 $	Increase (Decrease) in Part XII.6 Taxes and Penalties $	Increase (Decreased) In Subscriber Liability $	Contingent Provision as of June 30, 2015 $

9. Stock Options

The Company has a stock option plan (the "Plan") under which the Board of Directors of the Company may grant stock options to eligible participants including directors and officers of the Company. The fair value of share-based compensation is recognized as contributed surplus upon issuance.

The exercise price of the options cannot be less than the closing price of the Company's shares on the trading day preceding the date of grant and the maximum term of any option cannot exceed five years. There is no minimum vesting period. The maximum aggregate number of common shares under option at any time under the Plan cannot exceed 10% of the issued shares.

All outstanding stock options vested immediately upon being granted.

The following is a continuity schedule for each series of stock options outstanding from December 31, 2015 to June 30, 2016:

12. Capital Management

As of June 30, 2016 the Company had a working capital deficit of $289,093.

There were no changes in the Company's approach to capital management during the six-month period ended June 30, 2016.

In managing liquidity, the Company's primary objective is to ensure the entity can continue as a going concern while raising additional funding to meet its obligations as they come due. The Company's operations to date have been funded by issuing equity. The Company expects to improve the working capital position by securing additional financing.

The Company's investment policy is to invest excess cash in very low risk financial instruments such as term deposits or by holding funds in high yield savings accounts with major Canadian banks. Financial instruments are exposed to certain financial risks, which may include currency risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and interest rate risk.

The Company's mineral property interests are all in the exploration stage, as such the Company is dependent on external financing to fund its exploration activities and administrative costs. Management continues to assess the merits of mineral properties on an ongoing basis and may seek to acquire new properties or to increase ownership interests if it believes there is sufficient geologic and economic potential.

Management mitigates the risk and uncertainty associated with raising additional capital in current economic conditions through cost control measures that minimizes discretionary disbursements and reduces exploration expenditures that are deemed of limited strategic value.

The Company manages the capital structure (consisting of shareholders' deficiency) on an ongoing basis and makes adjustments in response to changes in economic conditions and risks characteristics of its underlying assets. Adjustments to the Company capital structure may involve the issue of new shares, issue of new debt, acquisition or disposition of assets, or adjustments to the amounts held in cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments.

The Company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements.

13. Financial Instrument Risk Factors

The following disclosures are to enable users of the consolidated financial statements to evaluate the nature and extent of risks arising from financial instruments at the end of the reporting year:

a) Credit risk

The Company's credit risk is the risk of counterparty default on cash and cash equivalents held on deposit with financial institutions. The Company manages this risk by ensuring that deposits are only held with large Canadian banks and financial institutions. The Company's accounts receivable are sales tax receivables with negligible counterparty default risk.

b) Liquidity risk

The Company's liquidity risk is the risk that Company has insufficient funds to settle its contractual financial liabilities. The Company manages this risk by ensuring sufficient funds are available as contractual cash flows become due.

As at June 30, 2016, the Company had a cash balance of $222,860 (December 31, 2015: $281,656) to settle current liabilities of $544,982 (December 31, 2015: $542,380).

The Company is exposed to liquidity risk. While the Company has been successful in obtaining required funding in the past, there is no assurance that future financings will be available.

c) Market risks

The Company's market risk arises from changes in interest rates and commodity prices that could have an impact on profit and loss. This includes:

- Interest rate risk, is the sensitivity of the fair value or of the future cash flows of a financial instrument to changes in interest rates. The Company does not have any financial assets or liabilities that were subject to variable interest rates.
- Commodity price risks, particularly with respect to diamonds, is the sensitivity of the fair value of or of the future cash flows of mineral assets. The Company manages this risk by continually monitoring base and precious metal prices and commodity price trends to determine the appropriate timing for funding the exploration or development of its mineral assets, or for the acquisition or disposition of mineral assets. The Company does not have any mineral assets at the development or production stage carried at historical cost. The Company has expensed the acquisition and exploration costs of its exploration stage mineral assets.
- Marketable securities risk, is the sensitivity of the fair value of marketable securities to supply and demand for particular marketable securities. The Company manages this risk by continually monitoring the market pricing and trends of its portfolio of securities to determine the appropriate timing to complete any acquisitions or dispositions. The Company has determined the marketable securities risk at year-end is minimal as the Company sold its portfolio of marketable securities in January 2016.
- Currency risk, is the sensitivity of the fair value or of the future cash flows of financial instruments to changes in foreign exchange rates. The Company does not have any financial assets or liabilities that were subject to variable foreign exchange rates and as such the Company is not subject to currency risk.
