

Honey Badger Exploration Inc. is a Canadian gold exploration company primarily involved in the identification, acquisition and development of prospective properties in Ontario and Quebec, Canada. Led by an experienced management and technical team, the Company's strategy is to aggressively advance projects to maximize shareholder value through data acquisition, compilation, interpretation and the use of cutting-edge technology.